

Linking to Account Rubrics

It is possible to link account-level rubrics to courses within a sub-account.

The steps below detail how to link a rubric to a Canvas assignment.

- 1. Open the assignment you want to link a rubric to.
- 2. Click the +Rubric button.

3. Click the Find a Rubric link.

4. Select your department/program.

Find a Rubric
1 rubrics	ENGL 1301 - Persuasive/Argument Essay
English 7 rubrics	Rubric 10 criteria
7 rubrics	ENGL 1301 - Writing

- 5. Select the appropriate rubric for your assignment. Please contact your dept. chair/program coordinator for more information regarding the name of the rubric.
- 6. Scroll down on the rubric information and click Use This Rubric.

ENGL 1302 - Research		/ 4 pts
Group Presentation Rubric	Tota	al Points: out of 100
100 points possible
ENGL 1302 - Research-	Use This Rubric

The rubric is now linked to the assignment. You should be able use the rubric to grade and assess the assignment.

Linking to an External Tool

A rubric needs to be linked BEFORE you enable an external tool. In most cases you can disable the external and then re-enable the tool. Disclaimer: Each external tool is different, and results may vary.

Turnitin has a new framework that allows for linking a rubric and a plagiarism review. See page 3 for information regarding enabling Turnitin Framework for your assignment.

Grading and Assessing Using a Linked Rubric

If you have added a rubric to an assignment, you can assess the assignment in SpeedGrader utilizing the rubric. SpeedGrader™ is accessible in all assignments and from the gradebook.

- 1. Open your students' submissions in SpeedGrader™.
- 2. Click the View Rubric button.

The rubric will expand on the right-hand side.
