

Art
Associate of Arts

Texas Southmost College
Division of Humanities

The Associate of Arts degree in Art provides the foundation for students to express themselves in a variety of creative disciplines and methods in the visual arts. Students who graduate from the Art program are prepared and encouraged to pursue a professional degree in any four-year art program in or outside of Texas. The Art program is designed as a foundations program preparing graduates to work in fields including but not limited to studio artist, digital arts, teaching, muralist, museum studies and gallery curation.
