Program Student Learning Outcomes

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLO) are statements that specify what students will know, be able to do or be able to demonstrate when they have completed the program.

PSLO (1): Demonstrate knowledge of the underpinnings of psychology that drive human development, cognition, and behavior.

PSLO (2): Demonstrate knowledge of the research of psychology and the application it has for working with and understanding diverse populations.

PSLO (3): Demonstrate how the literature is applied in diverse settings and to the real world.

PSLO (4): Demonstrate best communication practices, including knowledge about the underpinnings of psychology and the applications of theories and theoretical perspectives.

PSLO (5): Demonstrate scientific thinking toward understanding and applying theories and theoretical perspectives to human behavior and phenomenon, including social problems.
