

For Immediate Release:

Melinda Rodriguez, Director Marketing & Community Relations 956.295.3690 Office 512.587.0920 Cell melinda.rodriguez@tsc.edu

TERCERO ACCEPTS NEW ROLE: TO PREPARE AND INCREASE HISPANIC LEADERS IN COMMUNITY COLLEGES

(BROWNSVILLE, TX) July 22, 2014 –Dr. Lily F. Tercero, TSC president, assumes a new leadership role as a member of the National Community College Hispanic Council (NCCHC) Board of Directors. In this capacity, she joins community college leaders from across the United States in fulfilling NCCHC's mission of preparing and supporting Hispanic leaders in America's community colleges.

NCCHC is an affiliated council of the American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) and serves as the premier organization for Hispanic leadership development in community colleges. As a member of the NCCHC Board, Dr. Tercero will collaborate with other board members to support educational and leadership development experiences and provide opportunities for Hispanic professionals to continue their personal and career growth. The NCCHC is also committed to establishing strategic alliances that foster Hispanic leadership opportunities.

"I am deeply honored to have been nominated and selected to serve on the NCCHC Board," said Dr. Tercero. "I've been very fortunate to have received guidance and professional development from wonderful mentors, and I look forward to sharing my knowledge with other Hispanic community college leaders."

Elected by NCCHC members, Dr. Tercero will begin serving her three-year term, effective July 2014.

About Texas Southmost College

Originally established in 1926, Texas Southmost College currently offers the first two years toward a bachelor's degree, along with academic, career and technical education leading to certificates and associate degrees; college preparatory studies to prepare students for college-level work; workforce training; and continuing education. TSC became independently operational in the fall of 2013.

About the American Association of Community Colleges

The American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) is the national organization that has provided leadership to the community and technical college movement for the past half century and is comprised of more than 1,300 members representing two-year public and private institutions. The AACC generates greater involvement in its activities through a system of councils such as the National Community College Hispanic Council (NCCHC).